Dear Dr. Naranjo:

Thank you very much for your letter of March 22, 1965. I am honored by your invitation to address the Latin American Society of Pharmacology during the Second Congress in Mexico City. Unfortunately on October 25-29 I have to be in Italy, because I will be the chairman of a symposium there. I should greatly appreciate information about the final date of the Latin American Congress.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,
